EXCITED EUREKA.

It is no wonder that Hon. M. D. Foley has caused an excitement in Eureka county by his suit against the Commissioners. The wonder is that a movement of this kind has not been made long ago, for if any county in this State has been outrageously mismanaged, it has been Eureka. In 1881 the expenses were $126,000. In 1882 the expenses were $146,000. But for the golden stream which has flown into the county treasury from the Richmond, Eureka Consolidated, and other mines of that district, the taxpayers would long ago have had no taxes to pay, for they would have had but little valuable taxable property. How a few people could stand the impositions practiced upon them for so many years is a problem of the times. Now that dull times have come upon them they begin to realize the situation, and the Foley suit, even if it accomplishes nothing else, will have the good effect of acquainting the people with the manner in which their county affairs have been conducted, and lead them to an investigation which will result in relieving them in the future of some of the burdens they have endured in the past. At least we hope they will become so much interested in wishing good government at the lowest expense that they will hold their servants to a strict accountability of their trust, and not permit a few "bosses" to "rake" the treasury. Instances of extravagances have many times been pointed out by the JOURNAL, but the answer was made that it was the fault of the Salary Law. A Treasurer was paid $2,400 per annum, and then allowed a deputy at $1,500 per year. Every intelligent man in the State knows full well that there is not a Treasurer's office in the State but that one man can easily perform the work. An army of useless deputies have been allowed in Eureka, and in addition thereto the Sheriff has been given $1,400 for distributing ballot boxes, and $500 for recapturing escaped prisoners. There have been big steals and small steals. At last some of the chickens are coming home to roost, and the taxpayers find it necessary to band together to protect their interests. Hon. M. D. Foley has determined to put a stop to the illegal, unwarranted and dishonest practices which have been in vogue, and the Eureka Sentinel is nobly giving him aid and comfort. There is hope of a square deal in the future out on the Base Range.

IS THE COMPANY LIABLE

Several suits have been commenced against the Western Union Telegraph Company for failure to transmit messages after the strike, which will, of course, raise the question as to whether the Company can be compelled to transmit messages, or pay damages in case of refusal or neglect. A similar question as to the duty of railroads to dispatch freight arose from the strike in New York last year, and was carried into the Courts. The Supreme Court of that State decided that a railroad company may be obliged to exercise its duty as a common carrier, and that its employee's strike for higher wages did not justify the Company in neglecting to perform functions; that a corporation cannot refuse to perform its duty to the public because of a disagreement with its employees as to the amount of wages they shall receive; that it was the duty of the corporation to take such precautions, and to make such temporary or permanent concessions as to protect the public from damage or loss by a strike. The correctness of the decision has never been questioned, and there seems to be no reason why it should not apply with equal force to telegraph corporations.

The Egyptian Plague.

Advices from Egypt indicate no abating of the cholera plague, although its victims are chiefly among the native population. An average of nine hundred deaths daily is an alarming mortality, and, unless speedily checked, will very seriously reduce the number of Tewfik's subjects. The plague has been checked so far as the British troops are concerned, but the filth and ignorant fanaticism of the Egyptians render them easy victims.

THE TRIAL OF O'DONNELL.

There is considerable anxiety manifested on the part of the English authorities as to where O'Donnel, the murderer of Carey, should be tried. Government officials are very desirous that he should be tried at Cape Town, the difficulty is the tragedy took place twelve miles out to sea, and consequently outside of Colonial jurisdiction. It is morally certain, however, that, whatever the law of the case may be in the abstract, the authorities will find sufficient legal grounds to change the venue to the Cape, where a conviction of murder in the first degree is morally certain. In London O'Donnel would be considered by a number of people as a hero or political criminal and his trial would provoke excitement and popular feeling, whereas at the Cape there exists no such sentiment and he is regarded as a common criminal only.

THE STRIKE.

Officers of the Brotherhood of Operators Before the Senate Committee.

New York, August 13. Before the Senate Sub-Committee Master Workman Campbell continued: On the 16th of July demands were presented to the Western Union, American Rapid, Baltimore & Ohio, Commercial, and numerous telephone companies, and the only answer yet received is from the American Rapid Company, which has partially acceded to the demands of the Brotherhood. The answer of the Western Union Company to the appeal of the operators was that it was not known whether the Commissioners had the authority to speak for the employees of the company. Campbell said 90 per cent. of the employees were members of the Brotherhood; that the operators had frequently presented grievances to the local managers for an increase of wages, but these had been disregarded. It is generally believed that the Western Union had a well established system of black listing men who made applications for an increase of wages and took the first opportunity to discharge them upon some pretext or another. Favoritism was shown by all local managers, and skill was at a discount. This system of intimidation was practiced by the officials of the company since 1870. Several movements had been started to organize the operators, but all failed on account of this system of intimidation. John McClellan, an officer of the Brotherhood and an operator for 11 years, said the direct cause of the strike was the result offered by the Western Union Company to a committee of the Brotherhood in refusing to recognize or treat with them. Until then, it had not been expected that the strike would occur, but it was thought the company was willing to listen to the demands of the men and come to some adjustment if possible. The grievances were real ones, and if there had been a spirit of concession manifest by the company, the operators would have met them in this spirit. It was shown that General Feltner and other officers of the company had known of the plans of the Brotherhood before the strike began. The company knew that the grievances existed and that the demands were to be presented, and had been preparing to resist those demands ever since March last. If the present strike was a failure, it would only strengthen the existing organization, instead of breaking its power. When asked whether he could suggest any method by which a more equitable division could be made of the products of labor and capital between the employers and the employed, McClellan said this would be impossible.

A Strike in Eureka Contingent

The Sentinel says it learns from reliable authority that the drift from the lower shaft of the Eureka Consolidated has passed through the contact into ledge matter, one assay giving $18. The drift has been turned to come under and connect with the old workings on the 400 foot level. A later assay of ore taken out gave $40. This is the most important strike made in this district for years, as it demonstrates the existence of ore bodies at great depth and explodes the theory of many minerologists that veins which pass out at the water level. The news of the strike has infused new life into the camp and promises permanency and prospecting on a more extensive scale.

To the color blind the names of new tints and shades are puzzling, but the individual is stone blind who cannot see at a glance that the largest, finest and best selected stock of clothing in the State is at the White House, in Reno.

Governor Adams came up from Carson yesterday morning. The iron flagstaff on the peak of Mount Davidson looked down upon him and shuddered.—Enterprise.

A DISCOURTEOUS DIPLOMAT.

Complaints Against the German Minister in Mexico.

The New York Herald's Washington special says: It has recently been published that the German Minister at the city of Mexico delights in taunting the representative of the United States in that city by reminding him that the United States is a powerless nation. If this is true, the State Department has no information from Minister Morgan corroborating it, but what is known is this: It is customary among foreign Ministers to acknowledge in a civil manner the observance of national events, no matter to what country the affair pertains. On the Fourth of July, when the flags of various representatives of foreign countries were unfurled in the city of Mexico in honor of the anniversary of American Independence, Minister Morgan noticed that the flagstaff of the German Legation was bare. He sent word to the German Minister, stating that if the customary courtesy was not promptly observed he would consider it an insult to himself and make the issue a personal one, without delay. To this note, it is said, no answer was returned, but the German flag was immediately displayed over the German Legation. It is understood that the Secretary of State, by direction of President Arthur, has commended Minister Morgan for his conduct.

Condemning Democratic Legislative Work.

William T. Hamilton, Democratic Governor of Maryland, issues an address to the Democrats of that State, in which he severely criticizes the course of the last three Democratic Legislatures. He shows by numerous examples that the Democratic leaders in the Legislature have followed the policy of making extravagant appropriations and creating needless offices. At the close of his address he appeals to the Democrats of Maryland to reform their party management in the State and in the Legislature, and failing in this to start an independent party movement.

Ex Senator Gibson, and wife, went to California yesterday morning. Mr. Gibson will remain in San Francisco during the Conclave and then return and take in the sights at the State Fair, at Sacramento.

The Arthur "Boom."

Frank Howe, son of the late Postmaster General, has just returned from a visit to Wisconsin. One of the men with whom he talked was Governor Rusk, of Wisconsin. The Governor was a power in the Chicago Convention. He had Garfield's fate in his hands. He did more than any one man to secure his nomination. The Wisconsin vote was at his command, and he used it effectively during the final struggle. "I had a long talk with the Governor," said Mr. Howe. "He discussed the political situation with great freedom. He did not like Arthur when the Convention accepted him as a sop to the stalwart element, but he now has a great admiration for him. Said he, 'Arthur's course since he succeeded Garfield has compelled my admiration. He has been wise and considerate in dealing with affairs of state. He has truckled neither to stalwarts nor half-breeds, and has preserved a medium course, which, while it may have offended, has secured to him the respect of a great majority of the party. General Arthur will receive the support of the full delegation from Wisconsin in the next Convention, and Wisconsin will have a great influence in the result. General Arthur will, in my opinion, be the next nominee for the Republican party.'"

A Little Story With a Large Moral—One Man Who Knew his own Business.

"No, my dear," said the venerable keeper of a country store to a timid little girl whose head scarcely came up to the level of the counter. "No, my dear, we haven't any red flannel, but we have some first rate New Orleans molasses." Softly hinting that she didn't think that would answer the purpose quite as well, the child went her way in search of the article she wanted.

"Have you BENSON'S CAPICINE PLASTER?" asked a gentleman of a certain druggist whose name could be given were it desired. "I am troubled just now with a touch of my old friend, the lumbago, and the Benson's Plaster seems to go to the spot almost as soon as it touches the skin."

"Not at present," replied the druggist, generally. "But, we have lots of plasters just as good. There is Allcock's, the Capicene and others—won't one of them do as well?"

"My dear sir," retorted the gentleman, with a slight show of temper, "I say nothing against these articles, but I am a business man, and always ask for precisely what I want, and for nothing else. I may enlighten you, however, when I say that sometime ago, for reasons of which the Capicene has since cured me, I tried all these you mention, with no appreciable benefit. They are inefficient, every one of them, the meaning set of the proprietors of some of them being this: that they make plasters with similar sounding names to deceive the unwary into believing they are the same thing. Experience taught me different. I'll go to the next man in your line. Good day!" Be to your guard against imitations. The genuine has the word CAPICINE cut cleanly in the middle of the plaster. All others are imitations. Seabury & Johnson, Chemists, New York.

Second Lieutenant Chas. J. Bailey, First Artillery, has been ordered by General Schofield to make a survey of the Duck valley Indian reservation, situated partly in Idaho and partly in Nevada.

United States Marshal Corbett returned yesterday morning from Fort McDermitt where he has been on official business, but the Indians he wanted as witnesses had gone to Stein Mountain, and the Marshal's trip was "love's labor lost."

A LEPER.

A Genuine Case in Reno.

Constable Mike Shields brought up a Chinese prisoner yesterday from Wadsworth who has every symptom of being a leper. Before leaving Wadsworth T. G. Herman and E. Griswold informed Shields that they believed the Chinaman had leprosy, and upon his arrival here the Constable notified Dr. Waggoner, Co. Physician, and the Doctor proceeded to the jail, and made an examination, upon the conclusion of which he gave it as his opinion that the case was a genuine one of leprosy. To a JOURNAL reporter he stated that the Celestial had every symptom, his skin being dry and scaly; on one foot he has an open sore, and the muscles of that member are very much contracted; there are nodules on the bones, and every movement of the Celestial indicates loss of function of the muscles and locomotion generally. The Chinaman is a hard looking case all over. Dr. Waggoner is of the opinion that the Chinese Consul should be communicated with at San Francisco, and arrangements made, if possible, to ship the leper out of the country. If that can not be done the Dr. will order the Celestial to some shanty outside of the town limits.

A Close Call for Old Remotes.

Readers of the JOURNAL will remember Rev. C. H. Pope, who was pastor of the Congregational Church in Reno several years ago. He and his wife had a close call for their lives last month in the State of Maine, the account of which is given in a local paper as follows: Rev. C. H. Pope and wife, of Thompson, had a very narrow escape from drowning, July 25th. They, with their little son, Niron, three years old, are spending a few weeks at Hathorn's Point in Cushing. In company with a young man, they were on a pleasure sail, when Mr. Pope slipped and cap sized the boat. They all sank, and on rising Mr. Pope caught Niron, and the young man held him up, Mrs. Pope clinging to the boat until Mr. Pope swam to another boat and came back and rescued them in an exhausted condition.

Burglary.

Some burglarious individual took advantage of the temporary absence of the proprietor Monday night to burglarize the Ohio House. The entrance was made through the south window into the dining hall. The window was fastened with a brace which was readily removed by pushing out one light of glass. The thief ransacked the house pretty thoroughly, but found nothing of value that could be easily carried off except a gold watch chain and locket, which is gone, the thief breaking a large glass in the door of a book case to get at it. An unsuccessful effort was made to unlock the safe. Two valuable pistols were on a bed within a few feet of the safe which seem not to have been noticed. The thief was evidently a green hand at the business or was in an unusual hurry.

An Artful Dodge.

Major Nickerson, against whom the charges were preferred some weeks ago as a deserter, has proved himself to be one of the most artful dodgers on record, in fact, he is almost as slippery as the mythical "Tom Collins." If caught he would undoubtedly be drummed out of the service but the War Department is puzzled how to proceed in the matter. He cannot be dismissed for the reason that he complies with the law by reporting his address to the Department at the regular intervals prescribed, but when he is looked for at the address given, he has flown, and left no traces behind. The case is a perplexing one and will, in all probability, be referred to Congress for final solution.

Worth Trying.

The most profitable business in the State of Wisconsin, and that requiring the least labor, is the production of cranberries, and the berries are grown upon lands entirely worthless for other purposes. On the Truckee meadows are many acres of land, practically worthless for agricultural purposes that is admirably suited to the production of cranberries; a crop that costs but little to raise and rarely ever fails, is always in demand at good prices, and particularly suited to this climate. For some unaccountable reason farmers have an aversion to trying experiments of any kind, but whoever shall embark in the cranberry business on the swamp and overflowed land of the Truckee meadows will reap a rich reward.

The water grows beautifully less in the Carson river.

THE FIRE FIEND.

Three Grain Stacks and a Thresher Burned in Winnemucca Valley.

Monday forenoon three out of seven large grain stacks on Frank Dickinson's ranch, in Winnemucca Valley, were destroyed by fire, together with a threshing machine with all its appurtenances. The machine was at work threshing the grain when the fire broke out, and in a moment's time everything around the machine was in a blaze. Fortunately no wind was blowing at the time, which enabled the men to save four of the stacks by plastering them with mud and water. The stacks contained between four and five hundred bushels of grain each. The grain was insured for $2,100 and the machine for $250. Mr. Dickinson estimates his loss over the insurance at $900. It is not known how the fire originated. The machine was driven by horse power, and there was no fire near the premises. Some think it was caused by heat generated in the cylinder and others believe some one of the hands accidentally dropped a match into the grain which was ignited in passing through the cylinder. The machine was valued at $600.

Keep Them Covered.

Farmers as well as grocery men should be careful never to allow potatoes intended for use to lie in the sun, or stand in front of their stores in the sun. In fact potatoes should always be kept in a dark place under cover. It may not be generally known that the potato belongs to the "Solanum" family, of which the deadly night shade is one of its full brothers. All branches of the family contain more or less of that poisonous narcotic called "solanine." The bulb, or potato, contains the least of this, unless they are exposed to the sun, which rapidly develops this element. Long exposure to the light, without the direct sun, will develop the solanine in the potato, and make an article unfit for food. But exposure to the sun is so injurious to the potato, that it is not only unpalatable, but actually injurious to the health.

July Patents.

During the month of July, 1883, patents were issued, for mining claims, in the State of Nevada, as follows: J. H. McNea, Arthur Salt and Borax Placer; Madeline Goetz, Star of the West Lode; Fer'd S. Van Zandt, Bonanza Lode; J. B. Overton, Santa Rita Lode; A. L. Fitzgerald, Geraldine Lode and mill site; Nicholas Barlow et. al. Belle of the West No. 2 Lode.

Knights of Honor.

There will be a meeting to-morrow night in Odd Fellows' Hall, over the old bank, of charter members of the proposed new Lodge, Knights of Honor. The meeting will be open to all who desire to join the institution. P. H. Mulcahy, Deputy Grand Dictator, will explain in detail the objects and aims of the order.

Wadsworth Malefactors.

Constable Mike Shields, of Wadsworth, yesterday morning brought up two prisoners, one an Indian, the other a Chinaman. The former was sentenced to jail for thirty days, by Justice Pierson, for being drunk and disorderly, and the Chinaman was given six months for selling whisky to Indians.

The Miners' Union Picnic.

A delegation of miners from Virginia City were at Steamboat Sunday to arrange for holding the annual picnic of the Storey County Miners' Union at that place early next month.

From Pyramid.

Jas. H. Kinkead was in from Pyramid yesterday, and reports work progressing favorably, although the rock is harder than all. The tunnel has been driven in 113 feet, making the average 9 feet per day.

A Fine Team.

Sheriff Ricard, of Humboldt, claims to be the owner of the largest team in Eastern Nevada. They are of Clyde stock and weigh over 1,600 pounds each. They were raised by Hock Mason.

Sleepers in Demand.

Every available sleeping car on the Central Pacific Railroad is being sent to Ogden to accommodate the Knights Templar, who are going west to attend the Conclave.

The stage was stopped Monday afternoon, between Truckee and Sierra Valley, by two highwaymen, and W. F. & Co.'s treasure box robbed of $1,000 and the passengers of $40. The detectives believe they have an unmistakable clue to the robbers and will soon bring them to account.

BREVITIES.

Ernest Hawley, son of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, and late clerk of the State Library, has been appointed U. S. Mail Route Agent on the Carson and Colorado.

The new fare tariff adopted by the California Railroad Commissioners goes into effect on the Central Pacific on Sunday next. The rate from Reno to San Francisco will be $12 05; quite a reduction.

Wm. J. Sutherland, the well-known Virginia City printer, came down last night on his way to the Conclave. He is a member of De Witt Clinton Commandery and will participate in the festivities.

A bet has been made in Virginia City that George Thaxter, George Cowing, C. H. Galusha and Mike Burke make an average of 90 in the coming inter-State match. Safe to bet that Messrs. King and Crawford will do the same. So says the Carson Tribune.

The Justice of the Peace and Postmaster at Round Hole, in Reop county, closed their places of business last week and came 75 miles on horse back to see the circus. As the four other inhabitants of the camp came with them in a wagon no complaints were made.

The Silver State says that the price paid by Joseph Marzen for Craig's ranch on the Humboldt Meadows was $4,500, and that the purchase gives Mr. Marzen several miles frontage on the railroad, and brings the eastern line of his broad acres within half a mile of Lovelock's station.

It is universally conceded that George Becker is manufacturing beer that cannot be excelled. The reputation of the Pacific brewery is wide-spread and Becker, with his assistants, have all they can do to fill orders from abroad, and supply the demands of the Granite Saloon.

Professor Wright, of Oberlin, has lately been investigating anew the signs of the glacial period in America, and finds that the great sheet of ice must have covered the territory between its northern limit at Alleghany county, N. Y., southwest through Pennsylvania, entering Ohio a few miles north of the Ohio river, which it crossed on the line between Campbell and Pendleton counties, Ky., and recrossed near the southern boundary of Dearborn county, Ind. All this territory bears marks of glacial action, and is dotted all over with boulders, which now lie hundreds of miles south of their source. When the glacier extended across the Ohio it must have formed a dam from five to six hundred feet high.

How Far Certain Sounds Can Be Heard.

The whistle of a locomotive is heard 3,300 yards, the noise of a train 2,800 yards, the report of a musket and the bark of a dog 1,800 yards, the roll of a drum 1,600 yards, and the cricket's chirp 800 yards. When a Bodie man and his wife quarrel they can be heard four blocks. When a man kisses his girl, while in her room, it sounds to the man in the adjoining room like a noise from an exhaust pipe.

"WITH GRATEFUL FEELINGS."

Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.: Dear Sir—Your "Golden Medical Discovery" and "Purgative Pellets" have cured my daughter of Scrofulous Swellings and Open Sores about the Neck; and your "Favorite Prescription" has accomplished wonders in restoring to health my wife who had been bed fast for eight months from Female Weakness. I am with great feelings,
Yours truly,
T. H. LONG.
Galveston, Texas.

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. Feb. 21-awf-lyr.

The most healthy and popular drink of the season is the ice cold soda water sparkling with purest gas and flavored with true, delicious fruit syrups, to be had only at Queen's soda fountain.
